

NatWest referral to Victim Support's Fraud Support Service

Provided by Victim Support

Customers of NatWest who have fallen victim to a scam or fraud are eligible to be referred to Victim Support's Fraud Support Service. This dedicated service has been set up to provide victims with emotional support and practical help. The service is confidential and completely free of charge. It doesn't matter when the incident happened, or how much has been lost. We have a team of dedicated caseworkers who are experienced in helping victims of financial crime to cope, recover and move beyond crime.

Note: Victim Support are not connected to the Police or your bank, so cannot give you an update on any bank or criminal investigation. We cannot provide financial support or compensation.
